Why select Institute of Bankers of Sri Lanka (IBSL) to study Banking Finance

The core programme of Applied Banking & Finance:

- is a Professional qualification for Bankers/ Employees of Financial Institutions
- Provides a Special recognition for carrier progression
- is a Basic qualification for higher education
- is an Additional qualification for your qualification portfolio

What is the “IBSL” ?

This Institute was first established in 1964 in the name of Bankers’ Training Institute (Ceylon) by the Central Bank and re-incorporated in 1979 by an Act of Parliament: Institute of Bankers of Sri Lanka (Incorporation) Act No. 26 of 1979.

The IBSL is the only academic institute specifically mandated by an Act of Parliament to offer training, examinations and qualifications in Banking and finance subjects. As per the Institute of Bankers of Sri Lanka (Incorporation) Act No.26 of 1979, the following is the mandate of the IBSL.

- a) To provide instruction and training for employees of banking institutions and for employees of the Central Bank of Sri Lanka in the study of the theory and practice of banking and of related subjects and of such purpose to provide all facilities including lectures, discussions and library facilities;
- b) To conduct examinations and to issue certificates to those who are successful in such examinations;
- c) To facilitate and encourage discussions on matters of interest to bankers; and
- d) To take such measures as may be desirable to further the interest of banking.

The Governing Board

The IBSL managed by a Governing board of 12 high ranking banking sector professionals consisting of two members from the Central Bank of Sri Lanka (A Deputy Governor as Chairman and an Assistant Governor as Vice Chairman), two from Bank of Ceylon (General Manager and Deputy General Manager), two from People's Bank (CEO/General Manager and Deputy General Manager), Three from other banks (at the present CEO/General Manager from Sampath Bank, National Savings Bank and Seylan Bank) and three elected by members from Fellow and Associates of the IBSL.
