

Update your contact details

All members registered with the IBSL are required to have a valid email address and a mobile number registered with the institute to receive important notices sent by the IBSL. If you have not provided above details to the institute so far, kindly email them to mr@ibsl.lk at your earliest to update your member profile. Facility is also available for members to update their contact numbers (Tel. & Mobile numbers) online via IBSL website.